HELPING OTHERS

#601 Keeping Children Safe

The Center for Alcohol and Drug Resources is the leading provider of substance abuse education and prevention programs in Bergen County. Just last year, our services touched the lives of more than 20,000 Bergen Children, teens and adults. We are currently working on an exciting effort to keep kids safe. We developed an In Case of Emergency (ICE) card for teens and young adults that contains contact information and important safety tips. We need help with the cost of printing and distributing the ICE card.

#602 Turrell Child Care & Early Learning Center

For more than 30 years, thousands of Bergen County families have chosen the Turrell Child Care & Early Learning Center to nurture their little ones. In-fact, 40% of the enrollment are children from low-income families that receive scholarships. Your donations can help the Turrell Center continue offering a high-quality early education to families in need. Donations of any amount are welcome.

#603 Helping Teens Aging Out of Foster Care

The Thomas R. S. Burgin Parents Fund provides financial assistance to teens as they leave foster care to attend college or vocational school. It also provides emergency funding to any former foster care client who is facing a crisis and needs financial help. With ongoing support of the fund, we have been able to send a record numbers of teens to college and vocational school. Donations of any amount welcome.

#604 Help the Children in Our Care and Get a Photo Session

Help the children in our care participate in extracurricular activities, such as cooking classes, drama classes, dance classes, karate classes, guitar/piano classes, bowling, ice/roller skating and more.
